We are a small theatre company (office only) in Chinatown. We have a friendly, problem-solving, and industrious office culture. We are usually in the office about 10-6 M-F, but hours can vary depending on our programming. Learn more about us: www.pitheatre.com Our office is within a suite managed by Playwrights Theatre Company, with printer/photocopier, a meeting room, and rehearsal space available for rent from PTC.

Our ideal renter is in the creative community, and respectful of our working times. Let us know a bit about yourself and your work, and a day/time when you would like to come see the desk, by emailing info@pitheatre.com.
