

Return of John & Beatrice is a "Riveting Remount!" - Georgia Straight

Blog
admin_2
May 8, 2009
0

John & Beatrice opened this week and this show is smoking hot! Patricia Drake brings a whole new take to the role of Beatrice, and Vincent Gale's John is as fiery as the first time around.

"It's a different play and, for some who have seen both, better this time around. For me, it's not better but definitely different; perhaps sadder near the end - and more optimistic right at the end." - Jo Ledingham, Vancouver Courier

"Beatrice distributes ads saying that she is a wealthy young heiress looking for a man who will 'interest, move and seduce her'. This show did all three to Vancouver audiences when it opened in 2007 — it was nominated for several Jessie Richardson Theatre Awards — and it's back to have it's way with our city once again." - Georgia Straight "Fantastic script...Vincent Gale repeats his wonderfully deadpan performance." - Georgia Straight

Tags:
blog