Blogs

Read all about what is going on at Pi here!

April 26, 2018
Guests for Lady Parts VAGINA

Katey and Cheyenne have been hard at work creating the last episode of Lady Parts, VAGINA! This show will end the series with a bang, thanks to the help of the following absolutely hilarious and amazing women.

Directing this episode is Pippa Mackie!
Pippa Mackie is an actor/writer/producer and a graduate of the National Theatre School of Canada. She is a Jessie Richardson Nominee and was the Georgia Straight and Vancouver Sun's Artist to Watch in 2013. She has worked with such companies as: Arts Club, Gateway Theatre, Belfry Theatre, Pi Theatre, Rumble Theatre, Delinquent Theatre, Greenthumb...

More
*

March 29, 2018
Guests for Lady Parts HEART

Katey and Cheyenne have been hard at work creating their next episode of Lady Parts, HEART, and while they have some great material, they can't do it alone! For HEART, they'll be welcoming the following absolutely hilarious and amazing women.

Directing this episode is Mayumi Yoshida!
Mayumi Yoshida is from Tokyo, Japan.
Her role as Crown Princess (The Man in The High Castle) received a 2016 UBCP/ACTRA's Emerging Actor nomination. She made her debut as a filmmaker with Akashi-□□□- (2017) which she wrote, produced, directed, and starred in. The short film is based on her play NeOn-□□- which was...

More
*

January 6, 2018
The Events Choirs: Sarabande Chamber Choir

The Events is coming up and that means it is time to showcase our choirs!

We're excited to feature the Sarabande Chamber Choir on stage with our artists on January 25th!

Sarabande is a challenging chamber choir for young adults, comprised of experienced singers. All of the members are mature vocalists who have a special interest in exploring challenging and diverse repertoire. This choir sings across Vancouver at different events, including Vancouver's official Rememberance Day ceremonies with the Vancouver Bach Youth Choir.

Learn more about the different events that they have coming up by...

More
*

January 4, 2018
The Events Choirs: Soundscape Chorus

The Events is coming up and that means it is time to showcase our choirs!

For the last performance of The Events, on January 28th at 2pm, we have Soundscape Chorus taking over our stage!

Soundscape is an a cappella chorus that's been around for 22 years! Coming to the show from Surrey, they are an audition based choir with a repertoire that consists of popular songs from many eras, including some fantastic show tunes, jazz standards and some novelty songs!

They know how good singing is for you, and they want you to join them! Click here for more information.

More
*

January 4, 2018
The Events Choirs: Coquitlam Celebration Choir

The Events is coming up and that means it is time to showcase our choirs!

For our last evening performance, on January 27th at 8pm, we're thrilled to have the Coquitlam Celebration Choir joining our stage!

Founded in 2010, the Coquitlam Celebration Choir is all about celebrating music and its diversity! They perform music in different languages, from many countries around the world, as well as more modern compositions in English. Their choir members also bring a diversity of musical skills and have a great time singing with others!

For more details on how you can become a member of this great...

More
*

January 4, 2018
The Events Choirs: Local Vocals!

The Events is coming up and that means it is time to showcase our choirs!

For Satuday January 27th at 2pm, we are excited to feature Local Vocals!.

Local Vocals is a group for anyone and everyone, welcoming all singers! Director Anna Baignoche believes that everyone can sing, and she wants them to come and join Local Vocals where they'll travel the world through music. New participants are encouraged to come and check it out, so don't be shy!

Check them out by clicking here!

*

Pages

Tags:
blog