Blogs

Read all about what is going on at Pi here!

October 4, 2017
Be a Part of Climate Change Theatre Action!

The Only Animal and Pi are working together to put on Climate Change Theatrical Action in Vancouver. TOA held one of these events two years ago, but this year it is twice the size, featuring 50 playwrights and over 200 theatres worldwide!
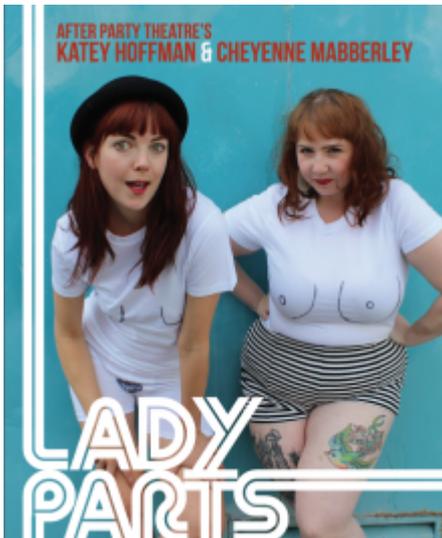

We are looking for individuals, collectives and companies to get involved and direct their own piece to spark conversations around climate change.

Are you interested? Here's what we need you to do:

Make sure you can do it: The show will be held November 12th at the Revue Stage on Granville Island. Your team must be available from noon-4, which includes a mini...
More
*

September 28, 2017
Who's ready for BOOBS?

This year, Pi has invited After Party Theatre and their new series to be a part of our season in the Pi Provocateurs Presentation Series! Katey Hoffman and Cheyenne Mabberley are two of the funniest people that we know, and we can't wait to showcase them and their guests in Lady Parts. Want to learn more about the show? Check out the blog that they wrote below, and don't miss their first episode - BOOBS - on October 17th, 2017!

From the sadistic minds behind the award-winning Fringe hit The After After Party comes Lady Parts - a live satirical sketch show like you've never seen before...

More
*

September 25, 2017
Guests for Lady Parts BOOBS

Katey and Cheyenne have been hard at work creating their first episode of Lady Parts, BOOBS, and while they have some great material, they can't do it alone! For BOOBS, they'll be welcoming some absolutely hilarious and amazing women.

First up is Melissa Oei!
Melissa is an actor and storyteller from Vancouver BC. She has appeared on stages across the country and has even performed on a ship in the Adriatic Sea! Some of her favourite roles include Vivie in Mrs Warren's Profession (Alley Theatre), Lucy in Long Division (Pi Theatre), Maudie in Flare Path (Slamming Door Collective), Gloria in...

More
*

September 7, 2017
The Events Synopsis

Are you not sure what to expect from The Events? Well here's some information to help get you ready for what you're going to see!

David Greig's The Events is a play inspired by the attacks in Utøya, Norway in 2011 commited by Anders Behring Breivik. It made its acclaimed debut in the Edinburg Festival in 2013, and has since been mounted across the globe in countries like the UK, Australia, New Zealand and the US. The Events will be making its English Canada premiere with Pi Theatre at the PuSh International Performing Arts Festival.

Onstage are three performers, Luisa Jojic as Claire, Douglas...

More
*

August 25, 2017
The Events: Luisa Jojic

Pi is excited to welcome Luisa Jojic to our cast for The Events. She'll be playing the role of Claire, a priest who directs a community choir. We asked Luisa to write us a blog, so below she shares what she is looking forward to with The Events.

"I am beyond excited to begin rehearsal on The Events. I have been prepping for the last couple of months, immersing myself in the ideas, words and world of the script, researching and getting ready to get into the room and start bringing David Grieg's characters and ideas to life.

I am looking forward to the incredible opportunity to dive into this...

More
*

August 19, 2017
Political Theatre in the Streets of Vancouver

Today's anti Muslim - anti immigration protest at City Hall was countered by an estimated 4,000 Vancouverites who believe in the value of inclusion.

As usual there were some terrific signs! One of my favourites said "No Alt-Reich".

There was also live music, and a palpable feeling of solidarity in the air.

It was recognized that when people come together they wield a voice that's stronger and louder than they could possibly have standing alone.

*

Pages

Tags:
blog