

Lady Parts: VAGINA

The fourth and final Episode of Lady Parts - SOLD OUT!

What's fuzzy, sticky, and gives life to the world?

A HONEY BEE, you idiot!

But also: VAGINAS. In this episode of Lady Parts, be prepared to get wet, bloody, and weird as we explore all things vagina related: periods, sex, birth, and good ol' disenfranchisement. We recognize some women don't have vaginas, some men do have vaginas, and some people—well, it's none of our goddamn business what's between anyone's legs, but we all have two things in common: we all love to laugh and we've all entered this world through a beautiful flesh taco. (Sorry for making you think of your mom's flesh taco.) This is our final episode of our four part Lady Parts series and VAGINA is our queef de resistance. Don't miss it.

For this episode, Katey and Cheyenne were joined by the incredible Katie Findlay and Kiomi Pyke! Directed by Pippa Mackie and Stage Managed by Melissa McCowell, this show also featured stand-up by Fatima Dhowre, a burlesque performance by Virago Nation, and sick beatzzz live by DJ Nina Mendoza.
