

Macbeth Muet at rEvolver

Pi Theatre and Upintheair Theatre Present La Fille du Laitier's West Coast Premiere of

Macbeth Muet

Two actors perform Shakespeare's Macbeth, without words.

AMBITION! MURDER! SEX! ...EGGS! Shakespeare's murderous couple cordially invite you to witness a hyper-speed rendition of their gruesome story, told entirely without words. Kings will die, nature itself will be twisted, and paper plates will...crack. Whether you're a fan of the Bard or not, Macbeth Muet gives a visceral and bloody ride through the story of a couple who, after a few wrong turns, plunge into the deep end of their own desires.

Macbeth Muet runs for four performances only at The Cultch's Culture Lab, 1895 Venables Street, between May 29th and June 1st.

7pm: May 29th and 31st

9:30pm: May 30th and June 1st

There will be a talkback following the show on May 31st.

Get your tickets here!

AWARDS

NNNNN - NOW Magazine, Toronto

★★★★★ - Winnipeg Free Press

★★★★★ - CBC winnipeg

"...inventive and oxygenating. It may break your heart in a way you don't see coming." - New York Times

WINNER Best Director (NOW magazine Toronto Fringe awards)

WINNER Best Ensemble (NOW magazine Toronto Fringe awards)

WINNER Best Production (NOW magazine Toronto Fringe awards)

NOMINATED Best Director, Best Production, Best sound and lighting (My Theatre Awards, Toronto)

Created by: Jon Lachlan Stewart, Marie Hélène Bélanger & William Shakespeare

Directed by: Jon Lachlan Stewart

Produced by La Fille du Laitier (Montreal)

Venue: The Culture Lab

55 minutes

