

The Events Matinees

The Events is a moving play about a faith-shattering act of violence. This gutsy work sets the pain of a mass-shooting survivor against the stolid, consoling presence of a community choir. While The Events struggles with violence, it also explores how we find empathy and common ground inside a tragedy.

The Events runs at the Russian Hall and is presented with the PuSh International Performing Arts Festival.

Tickets are $26 for January 17 preview and 2pm shows, & $31 for 8pm shows. All tickets are general admission and will have a service fee of $3 added.

Dates: January 17 - 20 and 23 - 27 at 8pm
January 20, 21, 27 and 28 at 2pm

Venue: The Russian Hall, 600 Campbell Avenue

There is no need to print anything; your tickets will be waiting for you at the theatre.

The show runs approximately 85 minutes with no intermission.

For group rates of 6 or more, for the arts worker discount, or for any questions you may have, please call Shayna at Pi at 604.872.1861 or email her here.

Are you a student? Use code STUDENT for a discount. Please bring your student card to the theatre.

Pi will also offer $5 rush-tickets to youth with proper id. The waitlist will start 30-minutes before show time and be based on availability.

Tickets are non-refundable.

Contains adult content and material that some audience members may find confronting.

Photo by Emily Cooper.

Presented with

PuSh
INTERNATIONAL
PERFORMING ARTS
FESTIVAL

